With over 5,000 years of art from around the world, The Metropolitan Museum of Art is a unique resource for everyone to experience and enjoy. The Museum lives in two iconic sites in New York City—The Met Fifth Avenue and The Met Cloisters. Since the Museum was founded in 1870, it has aspired to be more than a treasury of rare and beautiful objects. Every day, art comes alive in the Museum’s galleries and through its exhibitions and programs, revealing new ideas and unexpected connections across time and cultures.

The Real Estate Council was created in 1981 to promote and maintain industry involvement at The Met. Council members come from all facets of the real estate community and they have become an essential avenue of support for the Museum. Generous contributions help sustain a wide range of educational programs offered to millions of annual visitors.

In appreciation of their generosity, Real Estate Council members receive significant benefits and exclusive access to the Museum—from free admission for employees to invitations to exhibition previews and receptions, and opportunities to entertain in the Museum’s incomparable spaces.
